

Sean M. Heuvel
Instructor -
Department of Leadership and American Studies

BTC 346
(757) 594-7731
sheuvel@cnu.edu

Sean Heuvel serves as an instructor in the Department of Leadership and American Studies at Christopher Newport University and also teaches courses for the Department of History. His academic areas of interest include the American Civil War and Reconstruction, the role of memory in history, and film studies.

Prior to his appointment as an instructional faculty member, he served for two years as an admissions officer at CNU. Before coming to CNU, he worked for the Office of University Development at the College of William and Mary.

Areas of Expertise:

Nineteenth Century United States History
Civil War and Reconstruction
United States Military History

Education:

M.A. – History, University of Richmond, 2006
M.Ed. – Higher Education Administration, the College of William and Mary, 2005
B.A. – Government, the College of William and Mary, 2002

Honors/Awards:

Phi Alpha Theta – History Honor Society
Kappa Delta Pi – Education Honor Society
The National Society of Collegiate Scholars

Community Involvement:

Staff Officer – United States Coast Guard Auxiliary (2005-present)
Member – James City County Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission (2000-2004). Appointed by the JCC Board of Supervisors in 2000. Reappointed in 2002.