

Dr. Perkins is an experienced educator and administrator, having recently returned to the faculty after four years as Associate Provost. Her research interests include the influence of historical and contemporary contexts on leaders and the development of leadership behaviors and attributes in young adults.

Areas of Expertise

Self Leadership
Historical Perspectives in Leadership
Leading Change

Education

Ed.D. Higher Education, The College of William and Mary, 1991
M.A. History, University of Richmond, 1987
B.A. History, University of Richmond, 1975 – Summa Cum Laude

Honors/Awards

Phi Beta Kappa
Phi Alpha Theta – History Honor Society
Circle Key – Leadership Honor Society
James MacGregor Burns Award in Leadership Studies, University of Richmond

Memberships/Associations

Phi Beta Kappa Society
International Leadership Association