

Happenings Spring Session A 2012

Christopher Newport University LifeLong Learning Society

Yoder Barn
660 Hamilton Drive
Newport News, VA 23602
Phone: 757-269-4368

Week Four

February 20 - 24 , 2012

Monday Afternoon

Join us at Yoder Barn today, February 20, 1:30 p.m. for a very special lecture by Maestro JoAnn Falletta, Music Director of the Virginia Symphony.

Monday, February 27 we will once again be entertained by the CNU Music Department's Chamber Choir, 2 p.m. in the Ferguson Center Studio Theater.

Recently a member asked about a navy blue folder left in the barn sometime ago with notes from several classes but no name. It has been found and is in the LLS office.

COURSE MAKEUP

Course #17, "Dangerous Mixture," had a makeup day on Friday, February 17. The final class will be Wednesday, February 22, at 9:30 a.m. There will be NO class Wednesday, February 29. Course # 12, "Oil & Acrylic" will not meet Feb. 21 & 28, makeup date is March 6, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. Course #22, "Chesapeake Bay," will finish on Tuesday, February 21, there will be NO CLASS on February 28. Course #27, "Abstract Art," will not meet March 2, the makeup date is Friday, March 9, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Class Assistants

This is Week Four of Session A spring classes. Please remember next week is the last week of classes for Session A. Please circulate and collect critique forms for your class, put them in the class envelope and return the envelope to the shelf in the office. If your course is a ten week course, wait until the 10th week. Many thanks for all you do.

On Campus

The CNU Music Department presents a concert by the University Band and Wind Ensemble, Tuesday, February 28 in the Ferguson Center Concert Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Free and open to the public.

The LLS Book Club will meet Monday, February 27, 10 a.m. in the Yoder Barn. The group is reading, "American Eve" by Paula Uruburu.

Dr. Hussam Timani will present a lecture entitled, "Democracy and Religion: The Rise of Political Islam in the Arab World" on Tuesday, February 28, 7 p.m. in the David Student Union Board Room, (#250). Dr. Timani is an associate Professor of Islamic and religious studies at CNU and a regular contributor for LLS. Sponsored by the United Nations Association of the U.S.A., CNU Department of Government and CNU Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies. Free and open to the public.

Around Our Area

The First Presbyterian Church Memorial Concert Series presents the Young Performing Artists Winners Recital

Sunday, February 26, 3 p.m. The four winners were selected at the competition on February 19. The First Presbyterian Church is located at 514 S. Armistead Avenue, Hampton. The concert is free and open to the public, a free will offering will be taken.

The Fort Monroe Authority is sponsoring free Military History Cinema Nights. The movies begin at 7 p.m. at the Casemate Museum Theatre on Fort Monroe. The February 29 feature is "Sergeant Rutledge" and "Von Ryan's Express" will play March 28. For more information call 788-3391.

Wine expert and LLS lecturer Roy Williams will present two short wine classes in March at the Arts Center, 319 Main St. in Smithfield. The classes, on March 4 and 11 will meet from 3-5 p.m. The first class will cover white wines and the second will concentrate on red wines. Each class will feature a discussion followed by a tasting of six wines and several food items. Class size is limited. The cost is $35 and registration can be made by calling the center at 357-7707. For additional information, contact Williams at 238-9625 or collies2@verizon.net.

The Mariners' Museum presents the lecture, Voices of Freedom: Roberts Smalls, Saturday, February 25, 1 p.m. Walter Darden Jr., will portray Robert Smalls, a slave who, during and after the Civil War, became a ship's pilot, sea captain and politician. For information visit www.MarinersMuseum.org or call 596-2222.

A Tall Ship Trip

Would you love a day with tall ships, a shore festival, dinner at Nauticus and last of all, fireworks on the fantail of the USS Wisconsin? Sound like fun? Join the LLS group for a day trip June 9 to Norfolk and a chance to see the magnificent tall ships. This array of ships only visits once every ten ears! Check the flyer for details and register today!!