

Music Education Interview:

During the music education interview, you will be asked to describe your background, some of your best musical experiences, and what you love about music in general. Also, describe why you want to be a music teacher and what kind of experiences you have working with students.